

call for artists

art exhibitions across from the independence national historical park

FRIEDAcommunity is proud to present juried art exhibitions throughout the year in our Philadelphia space to celebrate art that spans generations. Opportunities are available for emerging or established artists who live or work within the Mid-Atlantic region (PA, NJ, NY, MD, DE and Washington, D.C.).

submission

- Send email to hello@frieda.community
- Six (6) numbered JPEG images (no more than two (2) detail shots) labeled with your first and last name, title, medium, size, and price (based on the fair market value you provide). Assign a number to each image and include an image list with corresponding numbers.
- Artist's contact information and website or Instagram/Facebook account, if applicable.
- Artist's resume and artist statement with exhibition record.
- Non-refundable $25 application processing fee.

During the exhibition period, we ask that selected artists schedule time to engage with our community through a workshop, demonstration or discussion.

FRIEDA is a multi-purpose space with curated exhibitions that encourages interaction between artists and the public. As such, no commission is expected from the sale of any artwork. Transactions will be handled directly by the artist and the potential buyer.

Detailed information can be found on our website www.frieda.community

additional information

- FRIEDAcommunity reserves the right to refuse any artwork for any reason.
- Artwork cannot be removed prior to the exhibition closing date.
- Artworks may be reproduced in publications and communications for publicity purposes related to the exhibition and general promotion as well as FRIEDA's permanent online catalog. Artwork is subject to photography by visitors. Questions, please contact hello@frieda.community exhibition guidelines

logistics and planning

- Exhibitions may take the form of a juried group or solo show or an invitational exhibition.
- Call-for-Artists with an entry fee will be posted on various call for artists websites and on the FRIEDAcommunity website, Facebook and Instagram page.
- Should FRIEDA decide not to hold the exhibition for any reason, all paid entry fees will be returned.
- Insurance (exhibition covered under general liability insurance up to $1 million; no insurance provided for the artwork during transportation).

artist's responsibilities

- Deliver artwork on assigned day and cover own transportation costs
- Provide price list of artworks communicated in writing at the time of submission. Prices cannot be changed prior or during show. FRIEDAcommunity should be allowed a discount of 40% off the show price. FRIEDAcommunity cannot buy artwork for a third party.
- Provide digital biographical or marketing materials.
- Handle sales transactions directly with potential buyers, including wrapping and delivery of artwork.
- Remove artwork on agreed dates. Note, FRIEDA does not have storage space availability.
- Attend the "Meet the Artist" Opening cocktail reception and one "Meet the Artist" community event during the exhibition time frame to promote your work. Possible events include a workshop or demonstration with the format, content, date and time to be agreed upon. All proceeds from these artist-led events benefit FRIEDAcommunity.
 - Artwork cannot be taken down before the end of the show.

FRIEDAcommunity commitment

- 1) Promote the exhibition and related events.
- 2) Add artists' images on FRIEDA's permanent online catalog.
- 3) Help artist install and take down artwork.
- 4) Provide Insurance for artwork at FRIEDA covered as part of FRIEDA general liability insurance of up to $1 million. Insurance for artwork during transit, not provided by FRIEDA.
- 5) Prepare invitations and cover costs for any "Meet the Artist" events, such as the opening of the exhibition or artist's demonstration.

artist financial aid

Any artist living 60 miles or more from Philadelphia may apply for financial assistance (please ask for Financial Aid Request form) to cover costs related to artist participation in exhibition. To be clear, no financial aid is available to artist living less than 60 miles from Philadelphia, unless otherwise agreed.

If selected, FRIEDAcommunity will cover 100% of the transportation and lodging costs for the artist to bring the artwork to FRIEDA and to attend the the "Meet the Artist" Opening cocktail reception and one "Meet the Artist" community event during the exhibition time frame to promote your work. Please note that all costs to take down the art work at the end of the show will be at the expense of the artist; this includes transportation and lodging costs.
